Delay in Approving Plans For Belmont Bus Service

Mayor F. J. Furlong Jr. this week attacked misleading statements concerning the purpose of the proposed Belmont bus service during a meeting of the Belmont Civic Assn. at the Central School.

"Chief purpose of the bus line would not be to take trade out of our community, but rather to bring people from the hill down to the city of Belmont." Furlong said.

Ray Withers, a representative of the Burlingame, San Mateo Transit Co., which proposes to operate the line, explained that the public hearing by the State Railroad Commission which was scheduled for Aug. 1 had been postponed to Aug. 20, and therefore he would not go into detail at this time over schedule and route. In answer to the mayor, Withers replied that "the commitments of the company to Mayor Furlong were just the same as they were a year and a half ago when he approached them to bring a bus line into the "back country" of Belmont.

Withers continued, however, that news articles might have been misconstrued, and that a bus line to San Carlos was to help the residents of Hidden Valley. He compared the line to the Hillside Alvarado route of North Burlingame where, he said, the merchants objected at first. Withers admitted it was the opposition which was holding up the hearing, and that help from those who wanted the line was needed.

In a recent letter to the San Carlos Chamber of Commerce the company stated an agreement had been reached with the Martin bus line of Redwood City.

Furlong reiterated: "All we want is a fair schedule and a fair route, and to know that before our citizens are carried off to some other city they be given a chance to stop in their own city."

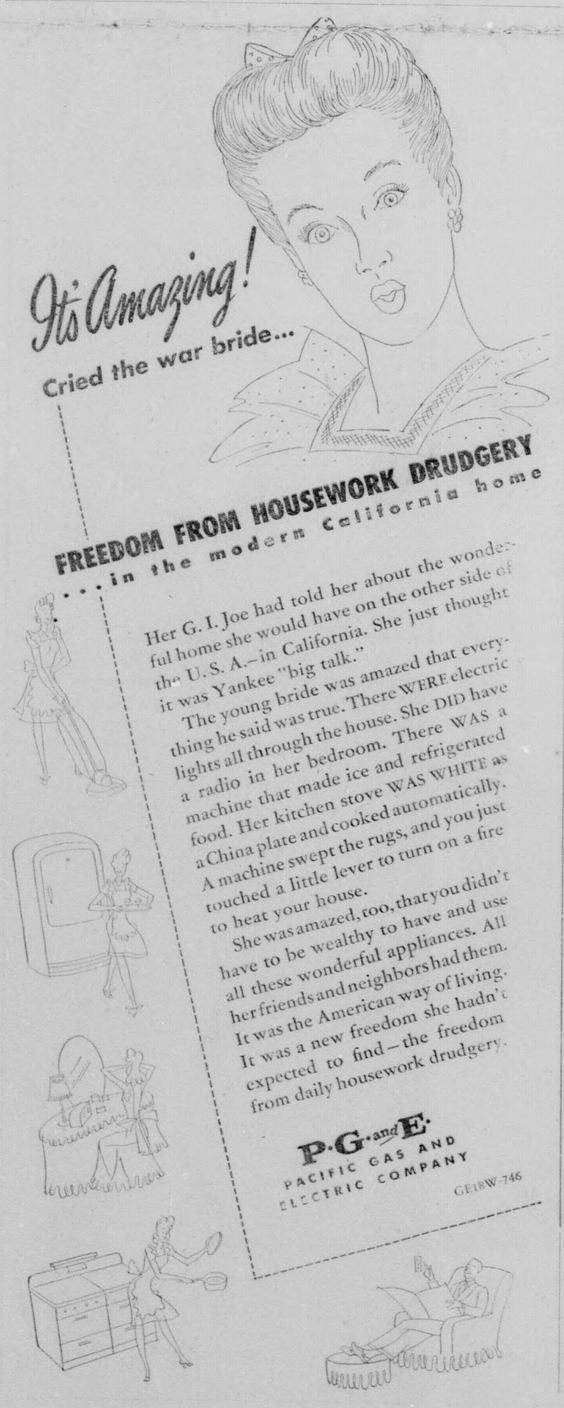
WOODSIDE HOME BURNS

Overflow from an oil furnace was the cause of a fire which broke out Saturday in the Naify residence on the old La Honda Rd. in Woodside at 8:05 p.m. Flames and smoke shot up the ventilation system in the house.



FREEDOM FROM HOUSEWORK DRUDGERY
...in the modern California home

Her G. I. Joe had told her about the wonderful home she would have on the other side of the U. S. A.—in California. She just thought it was Yankee "big talk."

The young bride was amazed that everything he said was true. There WERE electric lights all through the house. She DID have a radio in her bedroom. There WAS a machine that made ice and refrigerated food. Her kitchen stove WAS WHITE as a China plate and cooked automatically. A machine swept the rugs, and you just touched a little lever to turn on a fire to heat your house.

She was amazed, too, that you didn't have to be wealthy to have and use all these wonderful appliances. All her friends and neighbors had them. It was the American way of living. It was a new freedom she hadn't expected to find—the freedom from daily housework drudgery.

11 Months for 2-Week Cruise, R.C. Sailor, 4 Others Held

A Redwood City youth was involved in the weird cruise of the Ada Rehan, a Liberty ship that left San Francisco 11 months ago on a two-week jaunt and just arrived in New York after circling the globe, losing its skipper, and its mascot, a vodka-drinking baboon.

Norman N. Fifer, 18, of Redwood City, was named as one of seven crewmen who pleaded guilty to delaying the sailing of the ship from Suez last November.

Fifer, along with four other youths, was suspended for six months, but may return to work on probation after three months.

The Ada Rehan cleared the Golden Gate almost a year ago on a two-week trip to New Orleans. At sea she was ordered to go instead to Chile, and later she was diverted to the Mediterranean.

The captain collapsed after getting the ship out of a mine field off Tripoli, and was put in a hospital. The first officer took over and sailed the ship to several Middle East ports.

The ship's mascot, the alcoholic baboon, next went on a rampage and bit the new skipper. He was chased and shot down by an armed patrol.

At an Iranian port, three women and a boy "stowed away" with more than a ton of household belongings.

Reports of these weird events caused much curiosity as they reached the states, and after touching India, Ceylon, New Caledonia, Malaya and Shanghai, the ship was ordered to proceed directly to New York, through the Panama Canal. The investigation is being held in New York.

Thomas S. White Dies in Plane Crash

Thomas Stewart White, 20, nephew of Novelist Stewart Edward White of Hillsborough, and of the late violinist, Roderick White, was killed Tuesday when his airplane crashed 100 yards from his parents' home in Montecito after he had "buzzed" the residence in his second solo flight.

His mother pulled his crushed body from the wreckage just as the plane burst into flames.

Scott Hints Gambling Probe by New Jury

Superior Court Judge Edmund Scott Monday afternoon instructed his newly-impanelled 19-member 1946-47 grand jury to ascertain whether or not San Mateo County has good, clean government and subtly implied that he wants it to continue an investigation of alleged gambling operations in this county.

Judge Scott told the new jury that "it would not be fit or appropriate for me to try to tell you what to do, for I want you to feel absolutely free in all of your actions," but he strongly hinted to the members that he wanted them to probe the gambling situation.

"All of you have been in this county for some time and I am sure that you are aware of the fact that from time to time nasty rumors arise either from things that are said or things that are written.

"I have in mind particularly certain things that were written in the public press some months ago concerning certain phonograph records that were purportedly played in connection with a certain public investigation in Santa Clara County. (Judge Scott was referring to the then Sheriff William J. Emig gambling conspiracy case in which some San Mateo County residents were named).

"We will all agree that rumors and press reports in themselves prove nothing and I am sure that you will not be moved by anything that proves groundless.

"On the other hand," Judge Scott continued, "I am equally confident that you will not hesitate to thoroughly investigate all matters which come before you and that whenever you find that action is necessary you will courageously take such action. I admonish you to consider all matters fairly and without bias, yet fearlessly and honestly."

Judge Scott told the jury it was its duty to ascertain whether the county has good, clean government.

"If you find that we have such government then you should acknowledge it, but, if on the other hand you find defects, then you should take such action as you deem appropriate," Judge Scott said.

Fifteen men and four women were impanelled from a list of 30 names Monday afternoon. They were sworn in by Court Clerk Robert Duffy. Judge Scott granted the requests of three persons to be excused.

Joseph A. Ernst of Woodside, San Francisco envelope company executive, was appointed foreman by Judge Scott.

The jury then, behind locked doors, chose Mrs. Flora L. Jonsen, 134 Warwick St., housewife and clubwoman, as secretary, and Thomas B. Foster, 143 Almendral Ave., Atherton, retired U. S. Secret Service employe, as public relations representative.

The newly-impanelled grand jury will meet July 17 at 8 p.m. at the courthouse, Foreman Ernst announced.

Picked on the 19-member grand jury were:

Thomas B. Foster, 143 Almendral Ave., Atherton, retired U. S. Secret Service employe.

Las Lomitas Voters Pass School Bonds

A $130,000 bond issue was voted Tuesday by the Las Lomitas School Dist.

Passed 15 to 1 by a record vote of 220 (for) and 14 (against), the bonds are to finance construction of new and bigger buildings for the school.

Edwin J. Kump, Atherton school architect, has been working for months on plans for the additions.

Work will start immediately on the building program with the construction of a new, modern unit to take care of the fast-increasing population of the district.

Credit for the large turnout of voters is due to a group of 25 women who devoted three weeks to door-to-door canvassing in the district, familiarizing the voters on the bond issue and urging them to cast their ballots.

The Las Lomitas School is located in Atherton, on the Alameda de las Pulgas near Walsh Rd.

Four Boys, Girl Caught Taking Gas

Four boys and a 14-year-old girl were caught by a patrolling Belmont police officer Monday morning as they were siphoning gasoline from a parked car.

Two of the boys, George Lawrence, 18, and John W. Hargrove, 17, both of Belmont, have previous records for petty theft, and have been in the Juvenile Detention Home. Both boys served in the merchant marine, but have been idle for the past five months.

R.C. Home Cited For Originality

A Redwood City home is cited in the curent issue of Pageant Magazine as giving a lead to the whole country in how to beat the shortage of housing materials.

The house is an adobe building owned by and partially built by Hubert R. Chapin, retired advertising man of 651 Glenloch Rd., Emerald Lake.

Adobe is a very good building material, and most of the earth in this vicinity is suitable for making adobe bricks, Chapin said.

3 Persons Hurt In Auto Accidents

Three persons suffered minor injuries in two separate accidents on San Mateo County highways this week, the California Highway Patrol reported today.

Santino F. Bionda, 40, 1506 Floribunda Ave., Burlingame, lost control of the motorcycle he was operating on Bayshore Highway a quarter mile south of Millbrae Rd. at 9:50 o'clock Tuesday and struck a bridge railing.

Three Realty Sales Total $238,500

Three real estate transactions totaling $238,500—including one for a business development in Redwood City—were recorded here Wednesday with Ciunty Recorder T. Clark Rice.

Construction of retail stores on the northeast corner of Brewster Ave. and Arch St. is planned, it was disclosed following filing of a deed recording sale of the property—130 by 127 feet—for an indicated price of $38,500. The property was sold by Adanell and Vera M. Gerwin to Caliornia Pacific Title Insurance Co. for an undisclosed syndicate.

The construction of the stores will represent an investment of more than $125,000, according to Irving Dunn, who with Harold Goss of Menlo Park, handled the transaction.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Jason Jr. have sold their home and 10 acres of property at 98 Selby Ln., Atherton, to the Oakland Medical Building Corp. for an indicated price of $115,000.

Ways to serve fresh produce uncooked

There's no better time to enjoy foods in the raw than right now when vegetables and fruits are at their best. You'll find that crisp, cool salads and juicy fruit desserts are sure taste-tempters too, when the thermometer points upward. We've a few ideas on the subject.

RAW VEGETABLE QUARTET—Shred separately equal amounts of raw cauliflower, carrots, new beets and cucumbers and marinate in a tart dressing for 15 minutes. Place a serving of each in individual lettuce cups and arrange four cups on each plate. Serve with crackers spread with peanut butter.

SEAFOOD SALAD IN TOMATO CUPS—Cut tops from tomatoes and scoop out seeds and pulp. Chill tomato cups. Combine pulp with flaked canned seafood, sardines, cold chicken or meat, or chopped walnut meats. Add a bit of grated onion, salt and pepper to taste a dash of Worcestershire sauce and a little salad dressing. Refill tomato cups and serve with Melba toast made from leftover bread.

FRUIT MEDLEY DESSERT—Combine 2 cups sliced peaches or apricot halves with 1 cup melon cubes and 1 cup fresh pear slices. Add juice from 1 orange and ½ lemon and mix in honey to taste. Chill for 15 minutes before serving. Serve in berry dishes with sliced or chunk cheese for accompaniment.

FRESH FRUIT IN MELON BASKETS—Cut small melons in halves, remove seeds, and cut out meat carefully. Cut into small cubes or chunks and combine with sliced or whole berries, orange or grapefruit sections, whole white or red grapes, or any other fruit in season. Refill melon baskets and top dessert with cottage cheese sweetened with a spoonful of honey or jelly.
